

Afterlife at Old Station Tintern

Fri 26 - Mon 29 May, 10.30 am - 4.30pm
Late opening Sat 27 May, with artist talk at 7pm

Deeply calming & uplifting

Aesthetica Magazine

Experience French & Mottershead's moving audio art work Woodland that describes your body's slow fade into the leaf litter of the forest floor, whilst lying in the woods. This work connects you deeply to your body, and considers the biological and chemical processes that continue long after you are conscious, as you are gently subsumed by the earth over thousands of years.

Location:
The Old Station
Tintern, nr Chepstow
Monmouthshire
NP16 7NX

Suggested donation: £4 per person
Drop-in, or to book a place email: info@artsalivewales.org.uk
For details see: artsalivewales.org.uk facebook.com/breakandbell

This work contains content younger visitors may find disturbing. Recommended 14+. This is an outdoor work. Please wear appropriate clothing and sensible shoes.

Woodland is one of four audio works from French & Mottershead's Afterlife series, supported by Arts Council England, The Wellcome Trust, and presented on this occasion by Ruth Holdsworth.